The girl next door
Your very best friend
You play all day long
But the day is ending
Smiles and laughter
Fill the air
Cleansing you
Of your deepest cares

Games are so much fun
When she's on the other team
'Cause that screams you can tackle
And not think mean
You are playing rough
You see her teal eyes
All this beauty
To your surprise

Chorus
She's the girl you've known
For so very long
To look at her differently
Would seem almost wrong
As you grow older
Your feelings are changing
Not all bad, just rearranging
Yeah, yeah, yeah, they're being rearranged

When you hang out
You can only laugh and smile
Wishing this moment
Would last a long a long while
All your cares
Seem to fade away
But you never search for
The words to say

You mean the world to me
And you're the only one to me
For all eternity
You mean the world to me

And you're the only one to me
For all eternity

Chorus (2x)

She's the girl that lives
That lives right next door
All you've gotta do
All you've got to do
Is knock on her door
