Just a little sparkling starry night
And circle bad things we called good Individuality is frowned upon
And all things said, are misunderstood

And I can see the world as it is
And dont you think or hesitate, I'll show you All what it means to be different

But I found out any evidence of this and I had strongly spoken
Go sit on your cloud, and fall to the ground
Look at you, you just wait till tomorrow
And then look at me, Im being top of the world

People telling me who to be People telling me which side to take And I've been told that confidence is a habit i should break

But I found out any evidence of this
and I had strongly spoken
Go sit on your cloud, and fall to the ground
Look at you, you just wait till tomorrow
And then look at me, Im being top of the world

And I'm so strong so strong am I I went and built myself a concrete state of mind and look at you, now whos a fool never cared to find out how to live within yourself

And I can see the world as it is
And dont you think or hesitate
I'll show you, all what it means to be different

And I can see the world as it is
And dont you think or hesitate
I'll show you, all what it means to be different
To be changed

But I found out any evidence of this
and I had strongly spoken
Go sit on your cloud, and fall to the ground
Look at you, you just wait till tomorrow
And then look at me, Im being top of the world and I found out any evidence of this

and I had strongly spoken
Go sit on your cloud, and fall to the ground
Look at you, you just wait till tomorrow
And then look at me, Im being top of the world
