Save his soul today
Prepared in black and gray
Fought it out
From a sick bed
Sound the bell again
Destruction's noble prey
Celebrate
The jumping off place

And it's all so unnecessary
Worn out with all those we bury
All so unnecessary
Death has never been a friend of mine

I won't forget your name
Preserved in hall of fame
For regards
From the extants
I still regret the day
When earth became your bed
Hid away
By the worn out

I can't forget your name
I won't forget your face
The truth behind this game
Escapes the human race
