[SARCOFAGO]

Vices, madness, passion, hate: Thirst for power and being. Diversion through oppression, it starts an intense reaction. Trying to say something, you can burn yourself. This game has no rules, no mercy, not compassion. There's only school to enter and only a language to learn. Nobody can escape, from the laws of scourge. You must learn these laws or you better kill yourself!!! Learn how to use your enemies to manipulate the dolls. To discover whose your friends are and learn how to kill off the false. Hunted by all the curses our destiny is to join this war. Awaiting our friends, Mrs. Death to stitch their last uniform. Fight for what you believe to be right. You just wish and you get it. You'll see my friend, we'll gonna win in the end!
