Excepting me, who else can make God or Satan fear
of?

War is my name and I become disgusted for little things.

If you pass my way, you can be sure, you will last with your mouth full of ants!!!

My bullets don't demand a minimum age to finish someone.

All gods will know who is their only master!

My felling for pain is intense and I have many forms to show you how much perverse we are too!

Excepting me, who else can decide who will live or die
on this land?

I am the worst form of life that treads in this world.

If there is a God and his color is white...

I'm the deepest black in it's lowest form.

I won't tolerate their wails; hear their prayers.

That makes me smile!
