You used to say that you had a plan
How you were gonna be the man
And never bite the hand that feeds
Now everyday, I hear the same thing
Your life sucks and it's driving me insane

You used to think that you'd never die
That you were always gonna fly
Never read the lines for free
If it's so true, that you're overdue
Then our talk is the only reason you
Will go and shout that shit for all who never learn

Keep on, keep digging, digging these holes
So far, far down, no place to go
You shut your, your mouth and, and keep it closed
Keep on, keep digging, digging these holes

Now I've got a handshake, with a sly smile
And a wicked eye
You got a mouth full of sighs
And a head full of lies
Is this enough for your tortured soul
Well you'll get your way, I hear it everyday
Then I got news for the sicker fans
You gotta be sick and track, get a knife for all those past
If you spend your life without rage inside
Well just get away, just get away
Well go and tell that shit for all who never learn

Keep on, keep digging, digging these holes
So far, far down, no place to go
You shut your, your mouth and, and keep it closed
Keep on, keep digging, digging these holes

No sympathy, you dug your own grave
No way out, except the way you came
No apologies, it's far too late
No sympathy, no forgiveness from me

It's far too late, it's all too late

Keep on, keep digging, digging these holes
So far, far down, no place to go
You shut your, your mouth and, and keep it closed
Keep on, keep digging, digging these holes

No sympathy, you dug your own grave
No way out, 'cept for the way you came
No apologies, it's far too late
No sympathy, there's no forgiveness from me
