I got two bloody knees and a brand new scar
So come along son as we guess how far
Well, I took it the first time
This time there won't be a next time

What kind of friend would bite my hand?
If I stuck it out, I could give a goddamn
My eyes are open wide
And I learned to hate what I found, yeah

The love, the hate, regret
We all have it, hey, hey
We all have it, hey, hey
Yeah, the love, the hate, regret
We all have it

Raise your hands if you feel like I do
Scream it loud if you feel like I do
Bring the hell if you feel like I do
Like you do, like we all do

Raise your hands if you feel like I do
Scream it loud if you feel like I do
Bring the hell if you feel like I do
Feel like you do, like we all do

I climb up sixteen chapels
And kick out every sixteenth stone
To keep another one from feeling so broken
To keep another one from feeling so torn

Ain't got a friend, wouldn't bite my hand
If I stuck it out, I could give a goddamn
I tasted jaded talk and I
And I've grown to like it, yeah

The love, the hate, regret
We all have it, hey, hey
We all have it, hey, hey, yeah
The love, the hate, regret
We all have it

Raise your hands if you feel like I do
Scream it loud if you feel like I do
Bring the hell if you feel like I do
Like you do, like we all do

Raise your hands if you feel like I do
Scream it loud if you feel like I do
Bring the hell if you feel like I do
Feel like you do, like we all do

Raise your hands, bring the hell
Hey, hey, yeah

The love, the hate, regret
We all have it, hey, hey
We all have it, hey, hey, yeah
The love, the hate, regret

Raise your hands if you feel like I do
Scream it loud if you feel like I do
Bring the hell if you feel like I do
Like you do, like we all do

Raise your hands if you feel like I do
Scream it loud if you feel like I do
Bring the hell if you feel like I do
Feel like you do, like we all do

Raise your hands if you feel like I do
Scream it loud if you feel like I do
Bring the hell if you feel like I do
Feel like you do, like we all do
