Your words have crippled me
Crippled me, crippled me
My mind has blinded me
Blinded me, blinded me

My world, yeah
My world comes crashin'

You cannot hurt me anymore
Stay away from me
You can't control me anymore

No, no more, no more
You cannot hurt me now
No more, no more
You can't control me

You keep on comin' around
Someday you'll come around
Push a little more, you'll see it
Push a little more, you'll bleed

I feel my tension rising
And I feel my temper rising
Push a little more, you'll see it
Push a little more, you'll bleed

My world, yeah
My world comes crashin'

This open heart will blind you
And these open scars remind you
You stay, I'll stand still
You won't promise me, no

This open heart will blind you
These open scars remind you
You stay, I'll stand still
You won't promise me, no

No more, no more
No more, no more

The more you speak to me
The more you lie to me
The more you lie to me
The tighter this noose gets tied

I feel my tension rising
I feel my temper rising
Push a little more, you'll see it
Push a little more, you'll bleed

My world, yeah
My world comes crashin'

This open heart will blind you
And these open scars remind you
You stay, I'll stand still
You won't promise me, no

This open heart will blind you

No more, no more
No, you won't promise
No more, no more
No, no more

My world, yeah
My world comes crashin'

This open heart will blind you

This open heart will blind you
You won't promise me, no

No more, no more
No, you won't promise
No more, no more
No, no more
