What we've been through
I still want and need you, you
You you you

Times we loved another and times you f*cked another

The times invest in others, but the vice I last forever
In this cold cold world, tell them niggas you love em
I hate those stories got me thinking all night
Hope those feelings weren't true,
So does this amount to
All the times I heard the true,
But damn you heard me too,
Paying is the main back to these feeligns must be true
So this is our chance, we gotta make it through

What we've been through
I still want and need you, you
You you you
After what we've been through
I still want and need you, you
You you you you.

So they say what you do in the dark
Always come the light
If we kept it real fro the jump it wouldn't live this life
Now Im thinking in this G and trying to take it all in
And my lover best friend nigga thinks to me
'cause other things to you I love is like no other so
Now I'm calling you, listen to me please, I might obsess
So thanks these feelings must be true,
So this is our chance, you gotta make it through
So ..pouring out all my feelings to you

You're the only one that, that completes me
You know, you know, what we've been through
I still want and need you, you
You you you
After what we've been through
I still want and need you, you
You you you you.
