And there comes a time
When you when you aughta know
Well it's stormy outside
So quit, so quit all that runnin'
Were birds on the street
Oh the sweat in your pores

Oh stay free

Money, the sundown
Stiff on their knees
Oh beautiful ponyies
So beautiful
They'll kill us all.

Lets hide ourselves together
Down under the stairs

Don't you leave

Oh hey what did they say,
To get you so lonesome today?

Oh hey restless brown eyes,
Don't you sound.

And there comes a time
When you, when you aughta know
Oh there comes a time
So quit, so quit all that runnin'

Were fire in the sky
Oh the death at your door
Oh stay free
