Damn

I can't remember why we fell apart
Even how the arguments all start
I got this crazy thought
Running through my head
You keep insisting on convincing me that
Nothings changed
And keep on telling me
I'm trippin' but it's not a game
Cause somethings different
When I'm in it
It don't feel the same

Keep on picturing another ni**a been holding you
I feel somebody's been touchin' you
In fact I know somebody's been
Kissin' you
Do you wanna tell me who's been
Lovin' you, lovin' you

Holding you
I don't know why I've been trusting you
Only did what I'm supposed to do
Don't' know how I've been such a fool
For lovin' you

It never really matter too much to me
I guess I was to blind
And I could not see
The message in the words
That I heard you say
That you're unhappy
And you think you need
Some time away
These things just happen but
I know they don't happen that way
I try to understand it
Cause I love you

But I keep on thinking
That another ni**a been holding you
I feel somebody's been touching you

In fact I know somebody's been
Kissing you
Do you wanna tell me who's been
Lovin' you, lovin' you

Holding you
I don't know why I've been
Trusting you
Only did what I'm supposed to do
I don't know how I've been such a fool
For loving you yeah

Jazz: C'mon, pick up the phone
Shelly: Hello
Jazz: Yeah, what you doin'
Shelly: Sittin' here thinking about you boo
Jazz: Oh yeah?
Shelly: yeah, that's right

Did you think about me
When you was with your girlfriends creeping
(What?)
You was at the Club straight freaking
(That wasn't me)
What am I supposed to do
Tell me how could you've been thinking about me
I saw him in the bedroom creepin'
(Whatever)
I'm looking through the window
Don't you play me
(Hold up! where you at?)
Baby won't you tell the truth
(I am)
Cause I ain't trippin'
And i know that Ni**a been holding you

I feel somebody's been touching you
Kissin' you
Lovin' you, lovin' you

Holding you
Trusting you
Only did what I'm supposed to do
