Heaven sent
A lucky chance
That's what you saw in me

You did the dance
I felt the trance
But I can't stay on here

I saw the cliff
I felt the edge
But I can't seem to fall

You made a riff
I made my plans
And now we've hit a wall

I just wanna be your blessed man
Now mistake me for a stressed man
Not a goal you can achieve?

But you don't let me dream no more
I'm wakin' up by the fan? that comes by the door
Everytime you leave, everytime you leave

[Chorus]
Oh, I wish that heaven would fall on me
And strike our fears down
Oh, why won't the heavens just fall on me
Since I can't find it in you (x2)
Heaven should fall on the truth

We should look in hindsight
Go back to that first night
When you gave your sex? to me

I was looking for a one night
You were looking for a lifetime
Somehow we found a way to meet

I just wanna be your blessed man
Now mistake me for a stressed man

Not a goal you can achieve?

But you don't let me dream no more
I'm wakin' up by the fan? that comes by the door
Everytime you leave, everytime you leave

[Chorus]

Oh, I wish that heaven would fall on me
And strike our fears down
Oh, why won't the heavens just fall on me
Since I can't find it in you
Oh, why won't the heavens just fall on me
And strike our fears down
Oh, why won't the heavens just fall on me
Since I can't find it in you

A lot of people feeling like it's time for the world to end
Singers are rappin' and rappers are singin' n'
I chose a different way to show my expression
You showd me a lot of ways, gave me that expression
I mean fast no, I mean no yes
Shot in the soul, I got no vest
I auto changed your life made you no street?
Take a rusty fence if I can't get the pearly gates

[Chorus]

Oh, I wish that heaven would fall on me
And strike our fears down
Oh, why won't the heavens just fall on me
Since I can't find it in you
Oh, why won't the heavens just fall on me
And strike our fears down
Oh, why won't the heavens just fall on me
Since I can't find it in you

Since I can't find it in you
Heaven should fall on the truth

This is the end.
