what are we gonna do
what are they gonna say where are we gonna go
when they find out

when they find out

i really don't know you well you got to get to know me to see if we can't make this work though your friends won't approve see we can't let them know exactly what's going on cause they won't understand what we have between us

what are we gonna to do
when they find out (2x) i know we may be rushing there's no time to think it through cause when love overcomes your heart there's nothing you can do misery loves company but now you should know people always have advice about being together when they're all alone

(i cry) i cry late at night babe (inside) inside my heart i was all alone don't you let no goddamn body cone in and tear our love apart cause i love you girl you are my world so what are we gonna do

when they find out
