Can I play for you, baby
Hey yo Woody, help me out, yeah
Hey yo Jazz, you chill for a minute, ya know
Yeah, you like that?
Gonna sing a song for you, listen

Last night we had an argument
Afterwards, I'm feelin' pretty bent with
Then I took a drink and I didn't think
What was in store for me

So I wrote a letter
Dropped it on the bedroom floor
I never felt this way before, no
I grabbed my coat and closed the door

Baby I'm sorry, oh yeah
Will you forgive me, oh yeah
And let me be your only one?
'Cause you are

You are everything
And I would give you anything
Sorry for what I've done
I wanna be your only one

Girl I apologize
For all your tears when you cried
Sorry for what I've done
I wanna be your only one

Girl I apologize for all the tears
And all the lies
And if by chance just one more chance
I swear I'll be the epitome of a good man

I'm sorry, baby
Hey, yeah
And let me be your only one
'Cause you are

You are everything

And I would give you anything
Sorry for what I've done
I wanna be your only one

Girl I apologize
For all your tears when you cried
Sorry for what I've done
I wanna be your only one

Oh, oh, come on, come on
You are everything and everything is you
You are everything, yo yo everything I do
Oh you are everything and everything is you
You are everything, girl, you're everything I do

Oh you are everything and everything is you
You are everything, girl, you're everything I do
Oh you are everything and everything is you

You are everything
And I would give you anything

Girl I apologize
For all your tears when you cried

You are everything
And everything is you
