Heartbroken and attractive
A sad sloppy mess
Looking for approval
And easily impressed
Beware they say
But why would I listen?
I need to know what I've been missing
I'm no one you can trust
A little girl lonely in curious lust
Confusion turns me upside down
I'm lost as quickly as I'm found
As soon enough it turns around
On the rebound
On the rebound
Call it fate or true love
Never force romance
Fell into a new love
Perfect love with a chance
Beware they say
But why should I listen?
When it looks so good
No one lives their lives
Doing things they say they should
Confusion...
Confusion...
Confusion turns me upside down
I'm lost as quickly as I'm found
As soon enough it turns around
On the rebound
On the rebound
Rebound... / Rebound...
