You want to want it all
But that wont give you
What you need
Cause someone tore you up inside
And then said
Your not worth there time
Going insane is your destiny
Because you know what you have
And giving it away freely
Will cost only you
Promise to trust
The stone image
You thought to be me
Crushed two second ago
But I'm feeling fine
And I look at you
With those sad blue eyes
And I realize that
Your the one who's hurt
