

Blackmores Night

"Guilded Cage"

Visit "Guilded Cage" on MotoLyrics.com

I walk alone, the night wears a shadow Painted in silver, painted in gold
The moment ends in silence, then the moment grows old

And when she smiles, a thousand dreams surround her Dress them in secrets no one can hold
The fire dies in the distance as the embers grow cold

chorus
Sing for me now,
all the world is as stage,
smile take a bow,
From your guilded cage chorus end

Behind the glass, she's safe
Where no one can reach her Roses with thorns
Just make her bleed
A fragile porcelain angel Breaks easily

chorus

The restless heart cries when no one is listening She's waiting for someone Waiting for you
To want, love, and need her
To help her make it through..
