I saw three ships a sailin' in from across the sea Strangers ne'er were welcome but for curiosity
But come they did and when they did, ready they did stand
And things would never be the same in our village on the sand

When the ships pulled into dock, the villagers did hide When trouble came, it usually was brought upon the tide
When the pirates disembarked, they were making plans
And from then on, things were not the same in our village on the sand

Na na, na na na na
Na na, na na na na, our village on the sand
Na na, na na na na
Na na, na na na na, our village on the sand

The smugglers came into our town and many sought to run
I stood my ground bravely and came face to face with one
Time and travel on the seas weathered face and hand He was different than the others in my village on the sand

Na na, na na na na
Na na, na na na na, our village on the sand
Na na, na na na na
Na na, na na na na, our village on the sand

He told me of the years he'd spent on the stormy seas
But then he spoke a poet's words of philosophy And when he had to leave again, he asked me for my hand
And I knew I'd never see again, my village on the sand

Na na, na na na na
Na na, na na na na, our village on the sand
Na na, na na na na

Na na, na na na na, our village on the sand

Na na, na na na na

Na na, na na na na

Na na, na na na na

Na na, na na na na, our village on the sand
