I believe that I'm hangin' by a string
And I'm feeling so small in a world full of big things Undone and I'm ready to explode on the thing I don't know
And I just wanna let go

Understand that the way that I am
Is a product of a scam that you pull on the last man
Undone and I'm ready to explode on the things
I don't know and I just wanna let go

Surprise, my eyes were open
Don't suffocate what's broken
Are you ever done? Are you ever free?
Silence makes me numb without you

You believe that you're changing everything
And you're feeling so tall that you can even see me
Undone and I'm ready to explode on the things
I don't know and I just wanna let go

Understand that the way that I am
Is a product of a way that you wanna play my hand
Undone and I'm ready to explode on the things
I don't know

Surprise, my eyes were open
Don't suffocate what's broken
Are you ever done? Are you ever free?
Silence makes me numb without you
How can this go on? Take it all from me
Silence makes me numb without you

I never meant to cause you pain
Fighting aggravation causing suffocation
Never meant to cause you pain
Fighting aggravation causing suffocation
I won't let you

Are you ever done? Are you ever free?
Silence makes me numb without you
How can this go on? Take it all from me

Silence makes me numb without you

Are you ever done? Are you ever free?
Silence makes me numb without you
How can this go on? Take it all from me
Silence makes me numb without you
Without you, without you, without you
