I know I shouldn't be here tonight
Alone and heartbroken again
Standin' under this same street light
That changed our lives so long ago
I tell you what is on my mind
And how I'm dyin' inside
Without you around

And I found myself wantin' to know
What happened to us?
What happened to love?
'Cause I can't let go

So when I get to heaven
Will you meet me there
So I can say that
I loved you all my life?

All my life

I'm into these emotions by now
But this is different somehow
I only wanted you around
You know I didn't care how
'Cause you were with me

And I found myself needin' to say
What happened to my damn self-esteem?
I used to want to be someone

So when I get to heaven
Will you meet me there
So I can say that
I loved you all my life?

When the angels were makin' the sky
They stole the colour
From the blue in your eyes
And once upon a time
I knew you were mine

Oh you were mine

So when I get to heaven
Will you meet me there
So I can say that
I loved you all my life?

When I get to heaven
Will you meet me there
So I can say that
I loved you all my...
Life

Oh all my life
