All these crazy mixed up lies Floating all around
Making these assumptions brings me down
And you get tight lipped how do I know what you think.
Is it something I said when I lost my mind?
Temper too quick, makes me blind

I apologise
Said I'm sorry
Said I'm sorry now

It's your turn can you look me in the eyes and apologise

So now we sit around we're staring at the walls
We don't do anything at all Take out the garbage maybe, but the dishes don't get done

I apologise
Said I'm sorry
Said I'm sorry now
