A little street that don't walk the same
A coffee shop that used to call my name
A rusty old swing set
In the park where we first met

Seems everything is falling down
Don't look the same since she left town
I can't take seeing old mistakes
One more day

I'm packin' up
I'm pullin' out
I'm gonna grab what's left of my heart
Go where it takes me

I'm cuttin' loose
I gotta move
'Cause this ain't my town no more
Since Anita got married

We planned a house up on that hill
I had a job waiting at the mill
Someday a yard full of children
That's all we talked about, but then

One day she just started to cry
Said she was sorry, then she said goodbye
I guess it's time I let go
What's already gone

Packin' up
I'm pullin' out
I'm gonna grab what's left of my heart
Go where it takes me

I'm cuttin' loose
I gotta move
'Cause this ain't my town no more
Since Anita got married

Everywhere I look, I still see her
I can't take it no more

I'm packin' up
I'm pullin' out
I'm gonna grab what's left of my heart
Go where it takes me

I'm cuttin' loose
I've gotta move
'Cause this ain't my town no more
Since Anita got married
Since Anita got married
