Beware of the chaos
The silence is hearing you
Fake a smile
Your eyes might make you cry
These words you can never deny

Hearing the words that are unspoken...
Singing a bitter lullaby to the awaken...
Twinkling... a shineless star
Curing the unwounded scar...
As the pain doesnot hurt
Her intentions are like tidy dirt...

Her temple is the holy brothel
Like the fairy tale's cursed castle...
Those explicit phrases were the verses to her prayers
To evilize the unholy... she dares!
There she mourns for the kill
And she laughs underneath her veil...
Hiding the lie to be revealed!

Hearing the words that are unspoken...
Singing a bitter lullaby to the awaken...
Twinkling... a shineless star
Curing the unwounded scar...
As the pain doesnot hurt
Her intentions are like tidy dirt...

She shone upon the darkness
Which frightens her bravery
She found the lost heavens
Which leads to hell... suddenly...
A silent maelstrom...
A chaotic pleasure...
And she burns in the seventh heaven!
