I'd be lying if I sent you flying off
With promises implying greater things
Like death defying
Feats that I would do to save you from impending doom
I'd rather hold your hand and sing to you
Are our matching sweaters accident
Or do they tell us more?
Cuz lately it's been hard to miss
This blatant metaphor

So close your eyes
And try to feel me miss you
I wonder why
It took so long to kiss you

And you will never know
How the way you bite your lip after we kiss flatters you so
So let these waves fall down
And let your hair fall down
And let my gaze fall down in yours

We both know you're not the type to be impressed with
A silly song
So instead let me suggest that

You close your eyes
And try to feel me miss you
I wonder why
It took so long to kiss you

And hasn't this song been played before
Cuz it's the truest that I feel
But even if our time seems so short
It's been long enough to say that this is real

It's been long enough to say that this is real.
