Day to day
Your eyes are cold
Living turned to rot
Make your way through everything
With never time to stop

And with the way
And with the way you look at everyday
You know that
Things are gonna get worse
And the thoughts
That lead to everything
Are the only way you know how to cope

But, but
You've got to rise
Got to rise
To the top
To the top
You've got to rise
Got to rise
To the top
To the top
You've got to rise
You've got to rise
To the top
To the top

And tonight
Your talk is high
Dreams are turned to life
Drink your way through everyone
With never time to fly

But with the way
That you look at everyday
You know that
Things are gonna get worse
And the thoughts
That lead to everything
Are the only way you know how to cope

But, but
You've got to rise
Got to rise
To the top
To the top
You've got to rise
Got to rise
To the top
To the top
You've got to rise
You've got to rise
To the top
To the top
You've got to rise
Got to rise
To the top
To the top

You've got to rise
Got to rise
To the top
To the top
You've got to rise
Got to rise
To the top
To the top
You've got to rise
Got to rise
To the top
To the top
You've got to rise
You've got to rise
To the top
