Some call life a mystery
Where does it come from
Where does it lead
We can live eternally
Cause we've made love
Our destiny

Just to fall in love
We didn't really plan it
When we fell to this planet
Just to fall in love
And fly as one
To the stars above

We'll take us a trip
On companion's ship
And fly behind the sky
Though we don't know much
We know when we touch
Each other our spirits are high

Just to fall in love
We didn't really plan it
When we fell to this planet
Just to fall in love
We fell from above
Just to fall in love

We're especially bred
With thoughts in our head
That are one in the same
We have come here
To learn to share
Everything in one name
