"Cross To Bear"

I've watched in shame from outside in to all the stupid games they play
Enough I say, today's the day
I rise again and stake my claim

I walk proud and I stand tall
Keep my head up through it all
The cross I bear in life won't bring me down

I'll live and I'll let die at times I'll cry
I'll live my life eye for an eye
I know I tired, all hope has died
I brand myself with foolish pride

I walk proud and I stand tall
Keep my head up through it all
The cross I bear in life won't bring me down

I'll bear my cross at any cost
I'll carry on all hopes not lost
I think it's time to right the wrongs
And break free from there chains of mine

I walk proud and I stand tall
Keep my head up through it all
The cross I bear in life won't bring me down
