"Not My Type"

You think that there is something going on
I wanna say no so I gotta be strong
I never really thought that you ever liked me Cuz if you look in the past it never really seemed
That you ever liked me

You gotta understand you're not my type
Even if you were it'd be a hype
So go and live it up alone I'm not gonna write you a love
song
You gotta understand you're not my type

I was just about to let you go
Because I thought I should say no
But some things aren't so easy
And you really gotta know

You gotta understand you're not my type
Even if you were it'd be a hype
So go and live it up alone I'm not gonna write you a love
song
You gotta understand you're not my type
