Under the moonlight, it's too dark to see
To spend the night alone with me
Shoulder to shoulder, we're on the prowl
The night grows old, the reasons down to the ground

Stick to the path is what they said
Don't take one more step
(Or we'll end up dead)
Stick to the path is what they said
Don't take one more step
(Or we'll end up dead)

We hunt in a pack as we roam the street
And we'll attack in a heart beat
For my actions I'm to blame
The attraction has made me change
I am not the same

Stick to the path is what they said
Don't take one more step
(Or we'll end up dead)
Stick to the path is what they said
Don't take one more step
(Or we'll end up dead)

I don't know how to tell you, but I have to somehow
I used to be a werewolf but I'm alright now
I don't know how to tell you, but I have to somehow
I used to be a werewolf but I'm alright now
But I'm alright now

Stick to the path is what they said
Don't take one more step
(Or we'll end up dead)
Stick to the path is what they said
Don't take one more step
(Or we'll end up dead)

Just like the rest
(We'll end up dead)
Just like the rest
(We'll end up dead)

Just like the rest
(We'll end up dead)
Just like the rest
(We'll end up dead)
