Four monks claims the cevil him captive
In a meter to (?) tied and passive
Incredible news in a mountain village
The form of a letter said, rape and pillage

It's a hot day now
It's a hot day now
It's a hot day now
It's a hot day for the ice cream man

Satan having a ghastly white face
Long black hair and painted fingernails
His eyes are like walls of fire
He is crude and full of smelling

We lured lucifer into a shed
A blasphemus performance of a (?) in his honor
We tricked satan that we would give
Our souls to him for wealth and power

We vowed to set a trap for the evil one
And glory to god, it was successful
The devil isn't as smart as he thinks he is
We've been after him for two thousand years

I don't know how we'll dispose of him
We are all pray they can find a way
I don't know how we'll dispose of him
It's a hot day for the ice cream man
