

Duh "Wiley Coyote"

You called me once
You called me again
Tried once more
To make amends
I swore inside
Too proud to lie
Too sleepy to live
Too stoned to cry

Couldn't get to sleep last night
Couldn't wake up today

That's my life, that's my life

Couldn't get to sleep last night
I couldn't wake up today

That's my life, that's my life

Clock in at eight
Clock in at nine
You'll find me mostly
Supine downstairs

Number six man
Means he's writhing
Jerking off on his
Porcelain throne
