Let me down baby
You're driving me crazy
I need to erase all the things i have done
I shake and I shiver
Poison my liver
I'm riding a river that river is blue

I can see what you see
It's worrying
I'm fading fast towards my last
I'm hurrying
I wish that I could pacify the guilt that I feel

I know the wrongs this vagabond
Has done to you
I hit rewind most every time
That tape runs through
Your memory is haunting me and cuts to the bone

I'm drunk and I'm tired
Wound up and wired
I think I've aquired a problem or two
I quake and I quiver
Give up my liver
I'm riding a river that river is blue

I can see what you can see
It's worrying
I'm fading fast towards my last
I'm hurrying
I wish I could pacify the guilt that i feel

I can see what you can see
It's worrying
I'm fading fast towards my last
I'm hurrying
I wish I could pacify the guilt that i feel

I'm riding a river that river is you
