Girl, who are you ? It's a strange thing
I can't find you, you're always changing You're a secret I wished that I knew, you're so distant but what can I do ?
Every day of my life, I'm looking for you

And the more I get to know you, the more you are a mystery girl
Tell me, how can I get to know you ? You're always a mystery girl

When I hold you, when we're kissing
I don't know you, something is missing Yeah, you know how to love me so well, but this story that you've never tell Keeps me longing for you, I'm under your spell

And the more I get to know you, the more you are a
mystery girl
Tell me, how can I get to know you ? You're always a
mystery girl

I'm just looking for a place to start, to keep us so far apart Mystery girl, what's in your heart ?

(Solo)

I'm distant to follow your star, 'til I find out who you really are Won't you open the door to your secret world ? I wanna love you

And the more I get to know you, the more you are a
mystery girl
Tell me, how can I get to know you ? You're always a
mystery girl
And the more I get to know you, the more you are a
mystery girl

Tell me, how can I get to know you ? You're always a
mystery girl

And the more I get to know you, the more you are a
mystery girl

Tell me, how can I get to know you ? You're always a
mystery girl

And the more I get to know you, the more you are a
mystery girl

Tell me, how can I get to know you ? You're always a
mystery girl

Mystery girl, mystery girl, mystery girl, mystery girl
Mystery girl, mystery girl, mystery girl, mystery girl.
