Sitting on a train
Staring at the empty seat in front of me
Beneath the golden sky
Cities roll on by
And I can't get no sleep

When I'm alone sometimes
I try to understand
What things have meaning
And I despise myself for being such a fake

My mind goes up for miles and miles and miles and miles

Sail away with the sea as my engine and the stars as my guide
Sailing to the other side
Sail away with the sea as my engine and the stars as
my guide
Sailing to the other side

On a starry night
Walking home in silence while the city sleeps
I try to do what's right
But something in my nature's trying to ruin me
I look out to the sea
A thousand just like me
Needing direction
Just floating out of site into the failing light

As if it's just the way my life is meant to be

Sail away with the sea as my engine and the stars as
my guide
Sailing to the other side
Sail away with the sea as my engine and the stars as
my guide
Sailing to the other side

I'm setting sail
To the other side
I'm setting sail

To the other side
I'm setting sail
To the other side
I'm setting sail
Sun goes down
And I smile but it's just the same (To the other side)
Our summer is about to end (I'm setting sail)
I don't know if it's gonna be alright (To the other side, I'm setting sail)
Everyone's down and the town is in decay (To the other side)
Wasting our lives away (I'm setting sail)
And i don't know if it's gonna be alright (To the other
