Smoke away your pride, take your place at my side
As young hearts burn, in the midnight sky
Walking around, not doing much
Falling in love, cos life is a buzz

You knock me off my feet, yeah
You knock me off my feet
You knock me off my feet, yeah....

Smoke away your wage, throw up your kids
Burn down your shopping malls, with a dog-hair cigarette
Walking around, not doing much
Falling in love, cos life is a buzz

You knock me off my feet, yeah
You knock me off my feet
You knock me off my feet, yeah....

There I was with no direction
To work, to live, to die
Content to live without thinking
Carry on without knowing why

You made me feel more human
Suddenly I feel free
And everyone can put me down
But I will stand for my belief

You knock me off my feet, yeah
You knock me off my feet
You knock me off my feet, yeah....
