"Where I Find My Heaven"

Hey, Monday mornin'
Is only for the brave
And the blood flows through my heart
And leaves like sand as I shave

And the wind outside
And the taxi's ready
And the lonesome hum
That comes from my desk lamp is

Where I find my heaven
Is where I find my heaven
Is where I find my heaven
Heaven

But Sunday mornin'
Is only for the blessed
And the grace keeps flowin'
Just as long as we can stay undressed

And a whispered word
In my spirit lies
And the sacred moments
Of silliness are

Where I find my heaven
Where I find my heaven
Where I find my heaven
Heaven

It's where I find my heaven
It's where I find my heaven
Where I find my heaven

It's where I find my heaven
Where I find my heaven
Where I find my heaven
Heaven
