(Duncan)

Whenever i see your face
The world disappears, all in a single glance so revealing
You smile and i feel as though Ive known you for years
how do i know to trust what im feeling

(chorus)

I believe my heart,
What else can i do
When every part of every thought
Leads me staright to you

I believe my heart,
Theres no other choice
For now whenever my heart speaks,
I can only hear your voice

(Keedie)

A lifetime before we met
Has faded away
How did i live a moment without you
You don't have to speak at all
I know what you'd say
And i know every secret about you

(chorus)

I believe my heart
It believes in you
It's telling me that what i see is completely true

I believe my heart
How can it be wrong
It says that what i feel for you
I will feel my whole lifelong

(both)

I believe my heart,
it believes in you

It's telling me that what i see is completely true

And with all my soul
I believe my heart
The portrait that it paints of you
Is a perfect work of art.
