You can have
You can do
You can be
Anything you wanna be
But remember where you come from
Anh remember what you need

Some people like to have a ball
They wanna show they got it all
Some people throw it in your face
Just to tell you what they got
By what they have to waste
Do you get off on being shallow?
Where's the fun in that?

You can have
You can do
You can be
Anything you wanna be
But remember where you come from
Anh remember what you need
You can dream constantly
But is that who you wanna be
Coz maybe what you have now
Isn't really what you need

Some people need to shout and scream
They only do this when they're rolling in green
And others spunk it up the wall
But it's hard to swallow baby
When you're heading for a fall
Do you get off on being shallow?
Where's the fun in that? Yeah

You can have
You can do
You can be
Anything you wanna be
But remember where you come from
Anh remember what you need
You can dream constantly
But is that who you wanna be

Coz maybe what you have now
Isn't really what you need
