There was a time when there was nothing at all,
nothing at all
Just a distant hum
There was a being and he lived on his own, he had no one to talk to
And nothing to do
He drew up the plants
Learnt to work with his hands
A million years passed by
And his work was done
Hope you find it in everything, everything that you see
Hope you find it in everything, everything that you see
Hope you find it
Hope you find it
Hope you find me in you
So she had build her elaborate home with it's ups and it's downs
it's rains and it's sun
She decided that her work, it was done, time to have fun
And found a game to play
Then as part of the game
She completely forgot where she'd hidden herself
And she spent the rest of her time
Trying to find the parts
Hope you find it in everything, everything that you see
Hope you find it in everything, everything that you see
Hope you find it
Hope you find it
Hope you find me in you
Hope you find it in everything, everything that you see
Hope you find it in everything, everything that you see
Hope you find it
Hope you find it
Hope you find me in you
nothing at all
Just a distant hum
