Start up everybody now
We are here and lost in space
We're gonna leave the homebase now
So just look out, face to face
Please clap your hands and stamp your feet
We are losing our control
We're going now right to the sun
So please give me a call
Start up everybody now
We are here and lost in space
We're gonna leave the homebase now
So just look out, face to face
Please clap your hands and stamp your feet
We are losing our control
We're going now right to the sun
So please give me a call
