Rise and shine
Cause they are leaving
Across the border to smoothness and happiness
Swim just swim
Hit in with all you got
Just swim and cross the shell that covers up your life

Would you die
Oh, would you die?
Oh, would you die in 80 years with me?

Children of Marx and McOdola
We are the children of a silenced time
We should repeat the second world war

Just to point out that we got it right the first time

Would you die
Oh, would you die?
Oh, would you die in 80 years with me?

We are growing up with too much love
Inside a shell - a living corpse
Inside our selves
We are a waste but have to save
The world where I too can see
The light when I shut my eyes
Responsibility
We have to take on for free

Oh, would you die
Oh, would you die?
Oh, would you die in 80 years
