"Let Go Of Your Love"

Now you see the things we had
You lost 'em and you want them back
I can't see our lives entwined
So I'm just grateful
About the things we had us two
You lost 'em, now it's not me and you
Hope it's worth what I give up
Make me grateful

I saw it coming
Like all the time
I saw it coming
And now you're not mine

Let go of your love
Let go of me

Moving to Metropolis
My time has come for tender bliss
Left you scattered behind
While I'm just grateful
I can't see what I could do
For happiness for me and you
Begun anew as a wiser man
I'm just grateful

I saw it coming
Like all the time
I saw it coming
And now you're not mine

Let go of your love
Let go of me
