I'll keep it in my head 'til I know I
Until I know that I can leave your doorstep
Until I know the conversations cold

I'll hide it in the words until I know I
Until I know that I can be alone here
Until I know the consequences known

We're all in love with somethin' that we can't see
We're all in love with somethin' that we can't see
I'm in love with somethin' that I can't see
I'm in love with someone that I can't see
Ain't it right?

I'll throw you out and bring you back later
Everything I see's a complication
Everyone I've known has come and go

I've fallen in the reason for the passion
Everyone needs something for their hands when
When they know they're gonna be alone

We're all in love with somethin' that we can't see
We're all in love with somethin' that we can't see
I'm in love with somethin' that I can't see
I'm in love with someone that I can't see

I'm looking for something to shout
Something I know I cannot doubt
I'm lookin' for something to shout
Somethin' I know I cannot doubt
Come on, won't you help me out?

We're all in love with somethin' that we can't see
We're all in love with somethin' that we can't see
I'm in love with somethin' that I can't see
I'm in love with someone that I can't see

I'm in love without you
I'm in love without you
I'm in love without you
I'm in love without you

We're all in love with somethin' that we can't see
We're all in love with somethin' that we can't see
I'm in love with somethin' that I can't see
I'm in love with someone that I can't see

Well, I'm in love without you
I'm in love without you
I'm in love without you
