Time will see were not searching for a wild excuse
To put emotion back on hold.
Too much has gone down, we know what you're doing,
But do you feel the same way?

You look sharp inside your pointed shoes,
I have this picture hanging in my room
But I refuse to take you down or shake you down,
We could bring you gently round -

If that's what you.. choose, for a point of view,
I think you'll find it's true.
These words are like sand, just get blown away
All the things we'd like to say...

We need you..
We need you (we need you)
We need you (we need you)
We need you (we need you)
We need you (we need you)
We need you (we need you)
We need you...
