"Dream Boy"

Summertime, it's supposed to bring out the best in everybody but here I lie, waiting for my phone to ring, and I could be anybody and I wonder, don't you wonder what is my intention and if I could ever really, truly make you happy If it's not enough to keep me hangin' around, I'm such a flake boy
When the morning comes, I could be runnin away, just like your dream boys Send this dream back to yesterday, I don't have to face fog tomorrow Lonley yawning, sleepy this way, lead me through the trees to your hollow and I wonder, yes I wonder, if I'm gonna lose all this loving that I feel Cause if it could ever really, truly make me happy If it's not enough to keep me hangin' around I'm such a flake boy when the morning comes, I could be runnin away just like your dream boys, I don't wanna be your dream boy,
don't make me your dream boy, I'm not your dream boy
