(We will continue...er...to...er...watch
This situation very closely)
Here in the shadows where we stand
Watching lady, watching man
(And it may take nature three years the experts Say to make up for the damage done)
Greedy for pictures as they roll
We see the planet lose control
(The average credit card holder has About $750 of revolving debt)

Hothead! evolution nonstop evolution
Hothead!
Hothead! evolution nonstop evolution
Hothead! Hothead
Time, time will change the picture
(Ah it's a good sign)
About time, time will change the picture

Power to change the point of view
But what is fake and what is true
(There are charges today that a consumer product
Is torching homes and killing Americans)
Blow by blow you're telling me
You'll change the course of history
(Our television tends to come out of Hollywood
Action cars, crashes, chases)

Hothead! evolution nonstop evolution
Hothead!
Hothead! evolution nonstop evolution
Hothead! hothead
Time, time will change the picture
(Ah it's a good sign)
About time, time will change the picture

I turn you on you turn me off
Right now I'm suffering from this culture shock
Spread confusion wherever you can
With shaking heads and shaking hands
Cue propoganda to manipulate
Where there's megabucks you protect the state

Let the body break and the body tumble
So you build it up, then you watch it crumble

Time will change the picture
Evolution, nonstop evolution
About time, time will change the picture
Evolution, nonstop evolution
About time, time will change the picture
Evolution, NONSTOP!
