Oh, Medazzaland
Medazzaland

I had a problem
They said they can solve
Soon I won't speak
I have no words left in me

I dream in pictures
But the sound is muted
I have no way to understand
What they say

Into Medazzaland

People are starting to talk
But I don't hear them anymore
Now I can't see
But I am still able to think

Do I have any feeling left?
What are they saying about me?
Do they really understand what's wrong?

I feel their hands on my skin
The time has come for them to begin
I'm sinking deeper and deeper
Into Medazzaland

I can feel the scalpel on my skin
It's cutting in deeper and deeper
I'm in Medazzaland
Oh, Medazzaland

Into Medazzaland
Into Medazzaland
