You're gunna walk down that isle without mistake,
yeahh..
Cuz I didn't buy a ring, but you got engaged, yeahh..
Ohh.. cuz I was stupid to let you walk away, yeahh..
Ohh... and now it hurts because I never thought that I'll see the day when..
You'll be gone and I'm stuck with what's left of a heart
And it kills me inside, cuz you are, are, are

The sweetest love, I've ever know, I've ever known
The sweetest love, I've ever know, I've ever known

So why won't you give me another chance to earn you...
Ooh.. and I understand that I don't deserve you.
Ooh.. and why can't you see, baby, you complete me
Ooh .. and I'm broken and joking and along the breathing...
Cuz since you've been gone...
And I dunno why I'm stuck with what's left of a heart
And it kills me inside cuz you are...

The sweetest love, I've ever known, I've ever known
The sweetest love, I've ever known, I've ever known
The sweetest love, I've ever known, I've ever known
The sweetest love, love ever known, I've ever known..
oh, oh, oh, oh..

You are, and I'll never find another like you.
I said I'll never find nobody like you
You are, you are..are
And I'll never find nobody like you
And I said I'll never find nobody like you...

The sweetest.. the sweetest love, I've ever know
(I've ever known), I've ever known, (I've ever known),
yeahh
The sweetest.. the sweetest love, I've ever known
(I've ever known), I've ever known (I've ever known)
I know... and you are.. you are...
