Set you free, don't close your heart anymore
Everything's gonna go well
Break down the wall that hides you

I came to pick you up, get in my crap car
I am with you, so don't be afraid

Aren't you tired of the landscape out the window?
You should see another world
I will take you away to where you wanna go

You know, let the bitter memories slide
(Bitter memories slide)
By singing your favorite songs
Isn't it great?

I'll put o a burst of speed
I won't stop even it tires come off
Are you ready?
I'll take the bookmark out of your story!

Set you free, don't close your heart anymore
Everything's gonna go well
Break down the wall that hides you
Set you free, Take off the shoes you hate
I'm always on your side
Break down the rules that bind you

Choose your way by yourself and make up your mind
once
We're through this tunnel
What you wanna do is what you gotta do!
What you wanna do is what you gotta do!
What you wanna do is what you gotta do!
What you wanna do is what you gotta do!

Set you free, don't close your heart anymore
Everything's gonna go well
Break down the wall that hides you

Right now! (right now!)
Right now oh set you free!
Right now! (right now!)
Break down the wall that hides you

Right now! (right now!)
Right now oh set you free!
Right now! (right now!)
Break down the rules and get the freedom!
