The road forks in front of me,
I'm hesitating right now

Oh tell me which one is better

Someone said
"God knows which,
Choose the way by yourself"

And I asked myself,
What should I do?

You're accustomed to repressing your feelings

Now it's time to do what you like
Before your passion fades away...

Try my luck!
At the risk of losing my everything

'Cause I can only live once!

Try my luck!
(Try my luck! )

Try my luck!
At the risk of losing my everything

'Cause I can only live once!

The road forks in front of me,
I'm hesitating right now

Oh tell me which one is better

I've followed someone's footsteps
But I feel something's missing

I've forgotten what I wanna do

You're accustomed to repressing your feeling

Now it's time to do what you like
Before your passion fades away...

Try my luck!
(Try my luck! )

Try my luck!
At the risk of losing my everything

'Cause I can only live once!

Try my luck!
(Try my luck! )

Try my luck!
At the risk of losing my everything

'Cause I can only live once!

The road forks in front of me,
I'm hesitating right now

I asked myself,
What should I do?

I have chosen the right every time I decide

I'll try to choose the left for the first time...

Try my luck!
(Try my luck! )

Try my luck!
At the risk of losing my everything

'Cause I can only live once!

Try my luck!
(Try my luck! )

Try my luck!
At the risk of losing my everything

'Cause I can only live once!
Only live once!
